

Character Paragraph- Writing Homework Week 3

Write a paragraph discussing the protagonist from a movie or story of your choice. In your paragraph, you should discuss the following:

- why he or she is the protagonist (what he or she wants)
- who or what the antagonist is (who or what stands in the way of what he or she wants)
- who the foil is
- whether the protagonist is static or dynamic, round or flat, and why.

Be sure your paragraph includes the following

- € MLA format (double space, size 12 Times New Roman, etc.)
- € A topic sentence
- € A clincher sentence
- € Strong verbs
- € Quality adjectives
- € Three different sentence openers
- o Subject
- o Preposition
- o “ly” word
- o Ing,
- o Clausal (www.asia.bu)
- o VVS (very short sentence)
- € Good transitions
- € No contractions
- € No “I, me, my, etc.”
- € No “you, your, etc.” Don’t address the audience directly.